Assassination Panel Still Seeks Survival

WASHINGTON. — (UPI) — The House Assassination Committee today prepared its case for survival, proclaiming new-found unity among its members and fresh but uncorroborated information on the killings of John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King Jr.

The House Rules Committee approved a resolution 9 to 4 Monday to continue the panel for the rest of this Congress beyond its scheduled March 31 termination date. The House is expected to take it up Wednesday
